

Some of the most famous peaks in Patagonia. From left to right: Cerro Torre (3133 meters), Aguja Poincenot (3002 meters) and Fitz Roy (3375 meters). A straight, 90-kilometer road goes off Ruta 40 to the village of El Chaltén at the foot of the mountains. It's a two-day bike detour if the winds are merciful.

