

3

There's a middle path (for both men and women) that increasingly carries the day. An unstructured jacket that can still impress when slightly crumpled, a chino made from a crisp cotton and a knitted tie that can be comfortably worn in most work environments are the way ahead.

PHOTOGRAPHER: Seishi Shirakawa, FASHION DIRECTOR: Akio Hasegawa
HAIR AND MAKE-UP: Kenichi Yaguchi, MODELS: Tdye Harada from INDIGO & Yunki from AMAZONE

