

Everybody needs to pee. Several times a day. Some stand up to do it, some sit down. Some want to be alone and some don't care at all.

Some think about life while they're doing it. Peeing is a way of cleaning the body. And everybody feels relieved afterwards.