

Everybody gets lonely sometimes. Some even feel lonely in a room full of other people. Some feel empty and long for someone to spend time with.

Some even get ill because they're feeling so lonely. Keeping each other company and taking care of each other helps to stop loneliness.