

The illustration depicts a scene from a children's book. In the center, three children and a dog are on a light-colored path. On the left, a girl with dark hair, wearing a purple jacket and brown pants, stands with her arms crossed. In the middle, a boy wearing a purple cap, a green shirt, and dark pants stands next to a brown and white dog. On the right, a girl with long dark hair, wearing a blue jacket and dark pants, is looking towards the other two children. The background features rolling green hills under a large, bright red sun. The sky is a pale blue-green. The scene is framed by tall, thin trees with dark foliage on either side. The overall style is a soft, painterly illustration.

The Path

A Story About
Finding Your Way

Reif Larsen
Marine Schneider

LITTLE GESTALTEN