

---

While in Montana, between the Grand Tetons and Glacier National Park, Leander, Lennox, and Maria had an unforgettable encounter with a mother grizzly bear and her four lively cubs. From a safe distance, the three watched as the bear guided her cubs safely through the forest, imparting crucial survival skills to her young. The scene left a lasting impression on the observers (above).