

Frans Schrofer's father, Willem, is present throughout the house, depicted in drawings, paintings, and book publications. Willem taught at the Royal Academy of Art in The Hague, where one of his students, Hannie Bal, eventually became his wife.