

ABOVE Built to reflect the characteristics of the local architectural style, guest accommodation is predominantly made of stone and finished with natural materials. All rooms have sea and garden views and feel deeply immersed in the surrounding landscape.

