

'I'VE NEVER HAD A BUSINESS PLAN,
NEVER LOOKED FOR A GAP IN THE MARKET.
I DO WHAT I LOVE AND WHAT I'M EXCITED BY.'

The founders of LA-based Reverberation Radio, who create all the music at The Slow, are regular visitors. Rooms even have dials so that guests can tune into a bespoke playlist that runs 24 hours a day.

Art is an equally important part. 'Please Do Not Spit on the Painting' is by the couple's Japanese friend Madsaki. In the background hangs a still from the surreal 2003 short We Have Decided Not to Die, by George's old Northern Beaches crew member Daniel Askill.
