

ABOVE: The landing is decorated as a room in its own right, with a framed detail from a piece of antique wallpaper displayed on a Louis XV table. OPPOSITE: A daybed from the French Consulate period and wickerwork plant pots accent the summer living room.

