

Maana Kiyomizu blends ancient charm with modern comforts, offering a serene sanctuary surrounded by historic sites. Tucked away in a quiet yet central part of Kyoto, the exclusive space provides a transformative experience through its restored, classic machiya residential design. As evening falls, the enchanting space is illuminated by the soft glow of washi-paper lanterns that cast their beloved warm light on the old wooden beams and earth-toned interiors.

