

Many parts of the building feature HISTORIC graffiti, and rather than compete with this RICH PATINA, the interiors complement it.

All the graffiti and fixtures from the building's elaborate history are under monument protection. Consequently, the design integrated the decades of wall art, creating a pastiche of history and spotlighting the countless artists who moved in the space.