

In between excursions, there's time for unwinding in your compartment, sipping a pisco sour in the observation carriage, or chatting to other passengers in the piano bar carriage.

Having come this far, it would be crazy not to continue on to one of the most incredible archaeological sites in the world, the magical Machu Picchu.

