LOLA DUPRE

Maybole, Scotland, UK

Lola Dupre is a paper collage artist and illustrator based in Scotland, where she settled after decades of living and working throughout Europe. Her work is a delightful fusion of humor and references to art history. Dupre's style resembles a fusion of cubism with cat portraiture, the planes of a face exaggerated in graphic blocks. Recent projects with Vogue Russia also demonstrate her strong interest in fashion. "Inspiration comes from multiple sources, including nature and science, but evolves and changes often, as the collage themes change from abstract forms to buildings and animals," she reflects. Collaboration is central to her approach, with photographers in particular. Depth, space, and angles become extended and expanded. In Dupre's world, reality itself is reimaged.
