

The panoramic window slides back to open the living and dining room to the terrace, with expansive views over the rolling Chianti countryside.