

Set into the rocks on the point between Bongin Bongin Bay and Mona Vale Beach, these rockpools are a prime location for sunrise views over the Pacific Ocean. The concrete structure is separated into two pools: a smaller one for children, and a larger, 98-foot (30-meter) pool suitable for laps.