

Now he has to be fast, he's not on his own
There's a mean cat called Jerry and a big dog called Joan.

Hurt and abandoned when their owners left town,
They've been here a long time and they wear a mean frown.

Jerry moves quickly and gets the prime cut.
He's first on the scene and eats it all up.
Joan is so big she'll get all the rest,
Once she is done there are only scraps left.
