

01 Hand-painted map strips drying before being placed on a globe.

02 Bellerby globes come in all sizes, but each one is carefully crafted and customized by hand.

03 This kind of work requires high levels of concentration, so all the painters working in the studio must undergo significant training before executing a whole globe on their own.

04 Clients can personalize details and markings on their globe, right down to the exact hue of the ocean.
