

Wood beams and cabinets, leather furniture, stone floors, and expansive natural light provide a natural counterpoint to the home's exposed concrete frame.