

Opposite The wide nave was made possible by the then-innovative use of the flying buttress.

Top left The colorful stained glass windows narrate multiple biblical stories.

Top right The heights of the towers differ by a total of 32 feet (10 meters).

Bottom The North Portal combines Romanesque and early Gothic elements.